

CALIFORNIA 2018 FALL VIRTUAL TEACHING CAREERS FAIR

For Potential Teacher Candidates & Credential Educators

The California Center on Teaching Careers is hosting the 2018 Fall VIRTUAL Teaching Careers Fair. We will assist in guiding you to a pathway for becoming a California teacher and connecting you to teaching positions.

FOUR DAY EVENT:

November 27-30, 2018
3:00 pm - 7:00 pm (PST)

You can access the VIRTUAL Teaching Careers Fair during ALL 4 days.

For additional information, contact:

Marvin Lopez
✉ marvinl@tcoe.org

To learn more about the Center, visit:

 californiateach.org

For technical support, please contact:

tcoe@vfairs.com

WHY ATTEND?

Participate in VIRTUAL chats and video conferences with recruiters and administrators.

Potential Teacher Candidates

Explore the benefits of the teaching profession and learn about the multiple pathways for earning a teaching credential in California.

Credentialed Educators

Learn about upcoming jobs at participating school districts and County Offices of Education for the 2018-2019 and 2019-2020 school year.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

Credentialed teachers, career changers, college graduates, military veterans, Provisional Internship Permits (PIP) and Short-Term Staff Permit (STSP) holders, substitute teachers, and current university and community college students.

You can access the VIRTUAL Teaching Careers Fair from your mobile device, tablet, or laptop.

HOW IT WORKS: This is a VIRTUAL Teaching Careers Fair!

REGISTER: californiateach.org login or register and create an account

UPLOAD: Update your profile and attach (as applies) resume, credentials, and test results.

EXPLORE: View and browse registered teacher preparation pathways and employing agencies.

ATTEND: Login from any device to chat or video conference with California universities, K-12 school districts and County Offices of Education.

REGISTRATION:

Opens October 1, 2018; Closes November 23, 2018

2018fallvirtualevent.vfairs.com